

NAS Component Maintenance is pleased to announce that Luis Javier McClaren has joined NAS Component Maintenance in the capacity of Vice President of Latin America Sales. Mr. McClaren has been working in the aviation industry for over 20 years where he was worked in several capacities for airlines such as Air Panama and Copa Airlines. Mr. McClaren has served during his tenures in the airline industry as both in a position of purchasing as well as a senior Repair administrator.

We at NAS Component Maintenance feel that Mr. McClaren has the expertise and firsthand knowledge on what the airlines require from a maintenance provider. This insight will enable NAS Component Maintenance to uphold the highest quality standard from production to customer service.

Mr. McClaren's knowledge, experience, and work ethic goes hand in hand with the culture we have been able to build at NAS Component Maintenance. It is our belief that Luis McClaren will be an integral piece to the next chapter of our company's history in the aviation industry.
